*If you are already above this mileage, just maintain what you are currently doing until you get to the week that you are already doing and join the training at that week to increase your mileage. Still come and join us but you may be doing more than the training program for a little while, this is OK.

Weekday runs: there are 3 and should be done in that order. Do them how they work into your schedule. Could be Monday, Wednesday, Thursday or Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday.

Weekend long run: recommend picking either Saturday or Sunday and taking the day off before and walking or cross-training the day after easy.
